

Tom Wagoner is the lead pastor of Central Baptist Church of Dunn, NC. His powerful preaching and down-home personality have made him a sought after speaker nationally. Originally from Winston-Salem, NC; he came to Christ at age 12 in 1972. God began speaking to his heart immediately about serving Him and he started preaching at the age of 16. In 1984, God called him to pastor a small group of people who were forming a church in the small town of Dunn. Over the past 25 years, God has blessed Central Baptist Church under his leadership to reach over 1000 in regular attendance. Pastor Wagoner also preaches in around 20 revival meetings throughout the country each year.

Tom met his wife, Teri, while the two were at Tennessee Temple University. They have been blessed with three children, Stephanie, Tiffany and Stephen. Stephanie is an elementary school teacher at Wake Christian School in Raleigh, NC. Tiffany is married to Michael Smith, a businessman in Stedman, NC. Stephen is a pastor in Winston-Salem. He and his wife Brooke have given the Wagoners three wonderful grandsons, twins Noah and Eli, Kanaan, and a granddaughter, Madelyn.
